SHORT METRE POLITICS.

Paragraphs Gathered From Various Sources.

A Condensation of Matters Pertaining to the State and County Campaign—Interesting Reading.

The Democrats of Montgomery and Robertson counties did a good thing when they nominated Mike Savage for the State Senate. Such men are needed in our Legislature. He will be the peer of any man there.—Stewart Courier.

Hon. Joseph E. Washington will address the citizens of Nashville at the Jeffersonian Club wigwag next Tuesday night.

The County Executive Committee held a business meeting at Democratic headquarters to-day.

Banner: Prof. Williams—Why in the Dickens didn't you burn that letter? McDOWELL.

The worst thing about the letter is the fact that half of it was lost.

The people of Stewart county are preparing to give Judge Turney a large crowd at Cumberland City Monday. They will attend from all over the county. Montgomery will also furnish her share.

The Buchanan politicians are preparing for a great blow-out Monday. They have received by express a large number of flags. They embrace every size and design. There are small flags and large flags. There are red flags and blue flags, and all kinds of flags. They will be sent to the various districts to day and will be brought in on horseback Monday. They will also come in wagons and carts, buggies and all other kinds of vehicles that can be mustered into service. In fact the Third party of Montgomery county will try to create a stampede in the political field here Monday, and it will be their last big day before the election. Buchanan will speak at the court-house at 11 o'clock and they will turn heaven and earth in an endeavor to get out a crowd. It makes no difference to them what kind of crowd it is, just so it's a crowd. This is what they want and they are shaking the bushes to get it. They will have out their full force and it will be the biggest day they have had in the county. The LEAF-CHRONICLE trusts that good order will prevail and that Governor Buchanan will be given a patient and respectful hearing.

Congressman B. A. Enloe has been invited to deliver some speeches in the county between now and the election, and it is probable that he will accept the invitation.

The failure of Mr. Field, the nominee of the Peoples' party for vice-president, to speak in Paris on last Friday, the day appointed, was a sore disappointment to the few followers in this county. It was indeed a "blue" day for the Populites. The results from the Georgia election, which was such a Waterloo for their champions, had just reached them, and it brought consternation in their ranks.

Hon. B. A. Enloe was called for by his Democratic friends, and responded by delivering one of his ablest and most convincing arguments for the party. That the Peoples' party has been completely knocked out is now clear to unprejudiced minds. First Alabama, then Arkansas, then Florida, then Georgia. And so it will be in Tennessee if Democracy does its duty. The Third party will soon be a thing of the past; the people are not to be deceived longer; a great victory awaits Democracy in November.—Post-Intelligencer.

The Young Men's Democratic Club, of New Providence, held a very fine meeting last night. This club has grown until it now numbers eighty-four members. The Seventh district is running for the Democratic pennant. There are now only six Buchanan votes in the district, and four of those are on the stool of repentance. The district will go almost solidly for the Democratic nominees.

Squire McCauley is in from Glenellen to-day and reports the Second district all right. Democracy is well organized, and this district will roll up a big majority for the straight ticket in November.

Hon. Joel B. Fort filled the appointment of Elector J. W. Gaines in Humphreys county, and met Mr. Ashcraft in six joint debates. Many men who had intended to leave the Democratic party and who were mad, got in a good humor and will vote the straight ticket. The people who come from Humphreys county say that Mr. Fort not only made convincing speeches, but his eloquent appeals in a good-humored way won not only the erring Democrats but made a deep impression on the Republicans. His good-natured speeches have done much good in the county.—American.

MAKING GOOD SPEECHES.

R. W. Tucker Takes the Stump For Democracy.

He Will Be in Montgomery County Next Week and People Should go to Hear Him.

R. W. Tucker, ex-State lecturer of the Farmers Alliance, is making speeches all over the State for the Democratic ticket. He is billed for several speeches in this county and inasmuch as the people should hear him, a report of his work will be interesting. He made a speech at Sparta the other day and the following dispatch sent from that place to the American shows what he is doing:

"SPARTA, Oct. 14.—The court-house was packed to its utmost capacity yesterday to hear the Hon. R. W. Tucker. To say that he made a masterly and effective speech but feebly expresses it. He made some happy hits in the beginning of his speech which completely captivated his audience. No such applause or enthusiasm has greeted any speaker at this place during the campaign. He told the people in a convincing manner of a deal which had been made between the Third party and the Republicans in Tennessee, and the effort being made by the leaders to deliver innocent but deluded Democrats into the hands of the Republicans. He said that he had sincerely worked for the renomination of Buchanan. That everywhere he went as Buchanan's friend, he pledged himself to abide the action of the convention and support its nominee. That Buchanan owed his defeat in the convention to the organization of the Third party. He showed up the true inwardness of things in a way that opened the eyes of many an unsuspecting Alliance man. Numbers who came here for Buchanan were converted. Your correspondent heard a prominent Buchanan supporter say that he never saw as many conversions at one meeting. His arraignment of McDowell and the Third party demagogues who are trying to drive the Alliance into the Peoples' party-Republican combination was most severe. He stood by the Constitution and was a consistent Alliance man; that the boast of the order was that it should not interfere with his religion or his politics; that no self-constituted boss could drive him out of the Democratic party. Altogether it was a glorious day for Democracy."

Mr. Tucker will speak at Bethlehem church, in the Fifteenth district, next Friday; at Palmyra on Saturday. Let everybody turn out and hear him. He will interest you.

OUR RECOGNITION

Is What the Venezuelan Revolutionists Now Want.

Other Nations Would Then Follow Our Example.

Senor Pena Inaugurated President of Argentina—Trouble Feared Notwithstanding the Quiet—The Colombian Congress Declines to Accept President Nunez's Resignation.

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—A special cable despatch to The Herald from Caracas, Venezuela says:

I have learned that Generals Crespo and Bustamante are very anxious to secure the recognition of the United States for the new government. They have already requested a private conference with Minister Scrags and are anxiously awaiting a favorable answer from the Washington authorities.

Crespo has asked Rojas Paul to return to Venezuela.

Senor Michelen has declined the appointment as minister to Madrid. Either Saluzzo or Abren will be appointed at that post.

No selection has as yet been made for consul to New York under the new government.

El Radical has been established in Caracas as a ministerial organ. The cabinet has decided to remove the censorship of the press and the mails are declared inviolable.

Barcelona is besieged by a legalist force under Sietemi, and its surrender is now a question of but a few days. The inhabitants are on the verge of starvation.

It is supposed that Admiral Walker's flagship, the Chicago, will soon sail.

ARGENTINA.

Pena Now President—Everything Quiet but Trouble is Feared.

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—A special cable to The Herald from Valparaiso says:

The Herald correspondent at Buenos Ayres says that Senor Luis Saenz Peña took the oath of office as president of the republic yesterday. Everything is quiet in the city despite the fears of trouble.

Police and soldiers were on guard about the halls of congress and the whole city was well guarded, and preparations were taken to prevent any rioting. President Pena announces that the right of local self government in the provinces will not be interfered with, except in cases where grave trouble arises.

The cabinet as announced is as follows: War, Senor Victoria; foreign affairs, Senor Alvarez; justice, Senor Torres; finance, Senor Romero.

General Roca will, in all probability, be sent to France as Argentine minister.

Nicholas Calvo will go to the United States to confer with President Harrison in regard to the relations between the two countries.

The deficiency in the Argentine revenue is $5,000,000 in paper and $127,000 in gold.

A case of cholera has appeared at Boca.

Buenos Ayres has concluded a three days' festival in honor of Christopher Columbus.

CHILI.

The 'Chilian journals say that President Montt's message, through Mr. Egan to the United States, is an expression of the good feeling towards Americans, but in no sense to be regarded as a personal compliment to Mr. Egan or the administration of President Harrison.

The leading papers in Santiago had a good deal to say about what they call the bluster of Argentine officials, and say that neither Chili or any of the South American republics need enter into any fratricidal war.

Uruguay.
News comes from Montevideo that a law has been passed providing for the coinage of $3,000,000 of silver. It is feared this exceeds the need of the country and may derange business affairs. There is little probability that the French loan will be perfected.

Brazil.
Yellow fever has appeared at Santos, Brazil.

COLOMBIA.

Congress Refuses to Accept President Nunez's Resignation.

PANAMA, Oct. 15.—The Colombian congress has decided not to accept the resignation of President Nunez. It has resolved to authorize the assumption of the government by him anywhere within the republic. This means that he may live where he pleases and that when he wishes he may shift the whole responsibility of his office upon a vice president.

President Nunez aimed to secure this privilege when he resigned and utilize it next year by making a prolonged visit to the Chicago fair. The relations between Nunez and the acting president undoubtedly will become strained as Nunez virtually has a commission to turn up whenever he pleases, on the acting president and render vain all previous plans of the executive power.

Reciprocity with U. S.

Congress has authorized the executive to reduce duties on imports from the United States in return for the free entry of certain Colombian products. The government is not disposed to conclude a treaty, but will offer to make the reductions by legal decrees. The Colombian government feels that it has been badly treated by the United States because the McKinley bill abrogates the treaty of 1846. Congress has ordered the signing of an important contract by which the Andean railway shall receive a loan of $7,500,000 at 6 per cent. interest.

It is Denied.

CHICAGO, Oct. 15.—Mr. B. E. Sunny, of the Edison General Electric company, says there is no truth in the report that Mr. Edison is about to associate himself with Messrs. Washburn and Pillsbury in the formation of another company.

Former Siberian Exile.

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—Count Adolph von Narraikow, a Russian Pole of noble family, who was twice exiled to Siberia, a well known translator of Russian works and a noted nihilist, died Thursday in Bellevue hospital.

THE DOORS WILL OPEN

And Ex-Alderman Jaehne Will Come Forth From Sing Sing.

He Has Served Six Years for Participating in the Great Boodle Scandal of 1884.

Special to the Leaf-Chronicle.

SING SING, N. Y., Oct. 15.—The doors of Sing Sing prison will open to-day to let out Ex-Alderman Henry W. Jaehne and the last chapter in New York's great boodle scandal of 1884 has been enacted. He has served six years, four months and twenty-five days, getting the benefit for all the time allowed for good behavior.

The sentence was for nine years and ten months, just two months less than the maximum penalty. The ex-convict was known as the chief of the boodle alderman and when he went into politics was a poor man. It was in 1882 that he first secured the election as alderman and in 1883 and 1884 and 1885 he was re-elected by increased pluralities. In 1884 he became conspicuous as one of the most earnest supporters of the Broadway Surface Railway project, which had as a backer Jacob Sharpe.

The aldermen who had been so good and kind to Mr. Sharp and his company heard many unpleasant things about themselves, but they were not troubled until the following March, when the State Senate took a hand in the matter. It ordered an investigation. It was one of those investigations which amount to something. But it was the merest scratch, as a billiard-player would say, that it brought out anything. On March he was indicted for bribery. He was charged with receiving $20,000 from some unknown person for having voted for the Broadway franchise. The boodlers concluded that it was high time for them to fold their tents and steal away, as their standing in New York was evidently at an end.

The first to go was John Keenan, who was a powerful politician and who engineered the whole deal, and who is said to have pocketed the whole of the $500,000, which was to have been divided among them all. He was quickly followed by "Billy" McInerney, reading clerk of the board in 1884, who was supposed to have distributed the money. Half a dozen aldermen thought the wisest thing they could do would be to see the seclusion of Canada, and they went to make up the boodle colony of Montreal. The aldermen who remained began to look about for means to get in out of the wet. Things began to look particularly unpleasant for them. Four of them concluded that their only salvation was in turning State's evidence, but this was not known until after Jaehne's trial was under way. It began on May 10th, Judge Barrett presiding.

Jaehne was defended by Richard S. Newcombe, who died recently of cancer in the stomach; Roger A. Pryor, who is now a judge, and John Graham. Judge Martine was then District Attorney, and he was assisted in the trials by John R. Fellows and De Lancey Nicoll. It was Jaehne's own confession to Superintendent Byrnes which brought about his conviction. When Judge Barrett sentenced Jaehne, on May 20, 1886, he heaped upon the boodler the severest words he ever spoke on the bench. A stay was asked for. It was refused by Judge Barrett and Judge Daniels. The next day Jaehne was taken to Sing Sing to serve his long sentence. He began work in the shirt department, where he turned shirts inside out preparatory to starching them. He worked at this for a year. After this time the court of appeals affirmed the decision of the lower court. From the work on shirts Jaehne was placed in the tobacco department, where he worked until a year ago, when he became a dishwasher in a hospital kitchen. Jaehne expected some of his associates to join him at Sing Sing. Only two came there, Arthur McQuade and "Honest" John O'Neill. McQuade only staid a few months. He secured a new trial and was acquitted. O'Neill was pardoned two years ago. The others all escaped prison. About six months ago the indictments against them were quashed. Jaehne's wife is still living in their old New York home.

THOSE WINCHESTERS.

Gen. Norman Refuses to Pay for Guns He Hasn't Got.

Knoxville Firms Send a Slight Draft for Pay Due on Arms for Coal Creek Volunteers.

An interesting condition of affairs, says the Banner, has resulted from the order issued by Gov. Buchanan to Sheriff Holloway during the recent trouble at Coal Creek, by which he was authorized to purchase for the State all available Winchester and to arm with them volunteers for service at the front.

The Winchesters were bought and issued in accordance with the order. Only about one-third of them were returned to the sheriff. To-day Gen. Norman received a slight draft from the hardware firms of Knoxville for something over $700. Gen. Norman sent the draft back with the statement that it would not be paid until some arrangements had been made for the collection and disposal of the guns.

If the guns are turned over to the State the State has no use for them. Still, it doesn't know what to do with them. The tactics and army regulations do not call for Winchesters, and really the State has no right to own Winchesters. Still, since the State has bought the guns, and it is only right that the State should collect what is its own, the State must find some way of disposing of them. The hardware firms will not take them back at a discount, because they have an agreement with the Winchester company which forbids them selling the guns for less than a stated price under any circumstances, and of course they could not hope to get as much for a second-hand gun as for a new one.

Nevertheless, Gen. Norman hopes that some arrangement can be made with the firms so that the guns will be taken back. At any rate they will not be paid for and turned into the armory. And on the other hand, the firms say that it is nothing to them who has possession of the rifles so long as they sold them by an official order.

EIGHTEEN FEET OF SNOW.

Worst Storm Ever Known on the Union Pacific Railroad.

DENVER, Oct. 15.—The Republican's special from Cheyenne says for nearly two days the severest storm ever known on the Union Pacific railroad has been raging here and as far west as Ogden, Utah.

In all directions telegraph communication was cut off until late Thursday night when this dispatch got through on a temporary wire. All railroads have been blocked, the cuts being filled with snow which in some places was piled up eighteen feet.

Rotary snow plows have been hard at work between Granite and Laramie, the snow being five feet deep on the level at the latter place.

A half dozen westbound trains have been tied up here, but left after the return of the snow plow Thursday night. Friday three coach loads of people pulled in from the west in three sections with more to follow.

The Cheyenne Northern is entirely blocked, telegraph communication being cut off. No one knows where the blocked trains on it are. Two days have elapsed since the road was snowed in.

At Granite canyon, Conductor Roberts Thursday was blown off the platform of a car and buried under a fifteen-foot embankment, the deep snow saving his life.

Reports are being received of immense loss of cattle and horses in northern Colorado and in Wyoming. Thousands of dollars' worth of these animals are known to have perished, and it is estimated that almost a third of the cattle and horses on the ranges have been destroyed by the storm.

An unknown dead man was found by the side of the track near Greeley, Colo., Friday. He had perished from the effects of the storm.

At Central City, Ratso Ebble, an Austrian miner, blinded by the snow and wind, walked into a five foot shaft and was instantly killed.

Ladies, bring your little girls and get them a nice little jacket reaser. Age four to ten years. Respectfully, sep21, dsw. Mrs. ROSENFIELD.
